

Teacher of Spanish and French Full-Time

Scranton Preparatory School is currently accepting applications for qualified applicants for the 2024-2025 school year. This position requires the teacher to teach Spanish and French.

The ideal candidate will meet the following minimum requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in Spanish and French and or Spanish and French Education;
- Previous high school teaching experience in both languages;
- Has a willingness to collaborate closely with the World Language department;
- Ability to demonstrate and/or articulate planning, teaching, assessment, and classroom management skills for World Language;
- Strong knowledge of Spanish and French culture;
- Strong knowledge of current trends in World Language education;
- Experience using instructional technology and learning management systems;
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills;
- Possesses a genuine enthusiasm for and interest in the co-curricular aspects of the school community;
- Has a willingness to animate the Catholic and Jesuit mission of the school and its philosophy and values.

Please send letter of interest and resume as soon as possible to: employment@scrantonprep.org

Scranton Preparatory School's Diversity Statement:

St. Ignatius Loyola, founder of the Jesuits, teaches us to seek God in all things. Jesuit schools believe that God can be powerfully encountered through an educational experience that includes and explores the great diversity that marks Creation in general and humanity in particular. Accordingly, Scranton Prep strives to form a school community in which differences in race, ethnicity, culture, religion, socioeconomic status, gender, sexual orientation, physical ability, and learning style are experienced, accepted, and understood.